

Which 'hole' at Mytton Fold is described by each clue? Each hole only appears once and used hole names, yardages, penalty zones and physical features.

Enjoy!

Here are your answers!

Which hole at MFGC am I?	Hole
Confluence of two streams	5
You should take advantage of the furniture on this hole	15
Three in Winter, four in Summer for the men – but 4 all year round for the ladies	8
OB left and you're wet if you're not away well	10
Big hitters can cut the corner and for ladies it's just 300 yards.	3
Four (yes, four!) ponds to contend with	7
OB long and right, but the ladies start nearly halfway there – their easiest!	18
OB left and right and pond's in teeing range	1
Turn right to play left, but no pond to spoil your day	11
Two ponds en route and the train taking the stain of you're too exuberant	16
OB left and right and ponds in teeing range	4
First time for a bucket and spade!	9
Apparently so much easier for the ladies, but OB beckons with the prevailing wind	14
The ladies have three, but this is unique for the men	13
Drift too much to the right and give Paddy a fright.	17
Should have gone to Specsavers if you're off-track on this one	2
Deceiving	12
OB right and no water (unless the guys duck hook!)	6

OB ...Out of Bounds

Assume men are playing off the white tees.
